

GOVERNING UNDER THE INFLUENCE

Learn how you can use your voice to shape the unfolding political debate in direct dialogue with presidential candidates. We'll provide training, let you know where the candidates will be, and help you decide what to ask/tell them.

Political "Bird-dog" Training

Tuesday July 28th 5:00 - 7:00 pm

2411 W. Central Park Avenue, Davenport, Iowa

RSVP: tracy@iowaaficio.com / 309-738-3196

Corporations wield excessive political power. But we the people have political power, too. Here in Iowa, our first-in-the-nation presidential caucus gives us incomparable access to the candidates and the media who follow them.

We can shift the tides of the national discourse by taking our concerns about corporate influence directly to the candidates. That's what we mean by "political bird-dogging."

Get the skills to stand up and speak out for women's rights, workers' rights, and other issues related to peace and justice. Join our community of bird dogs and take advantage of our unique role in American politics.

Co-sponsored by Quad City Federation of Labor, NARAL Pro Choice America, QC Next Up, and Progressive Action for the Common Good
